

I oppose the new proposed changes in the FCC rulings which would allow the continued consolidation of media companies. A media monopoly is typical of totalitarian states, not democracies.